Right by the cupboard that you had all your mountain climbing equipment, all your rope, the steel stakes mountain climbers use... a lot of mtn climbing equipment. Didn't they find a canvas bag with mountain climbing rope in the guest bedroom at the Ramsey house? You could have gotten in and out of that house by just jumping out one of the bedroom windows. I've seen you climb decent sized rocks and get up quickly. You were thin, and in great shape. I also have recently understood that Steve Thomas found a canvas bag in one of the entry ways??

Also in this room, a very significant clue left by our killer is a rope. The evidence invoice indicates that this rope was turned in, that it was found in a sack. I have no picture of the sack, but I have a picture of the rope.

The Ramseys, when questioned, know nothing about this rope. They say that it was not in that bedroom. It is out of place also. There is no other rope found in that house, and
